What your organization gets ?

Increased efficiency as a result of reduced stress on the security team. 24x7 SOC that renders guides with in-depth insights on threats Guided remediation with analysts.

We understand that, as an MSP, managing between quality service and keeping customers secure from cyber attacks can be stressful. Especially when you are limited in terms of a skilled cyber security team or stressed from the never-ending loop of security alerts. What adds more fuel to the fire is the increasing cost and complexity of solutions every year, inevitably leading to reduced productivity and increased Mean Time To Respond.

| Single platform solution to all vulnerabilities, threats, and compliance

Rest assured, our highly robust MDR solves all of these challenges through a single platform, allowing you to empower your customers' small, medium or large enterprises. Driven by AI and ML, it automatically attends to alerts, allowing security teams to focus on what is more important and serious. Through expert-guided remediation, they can get an in-depth view of TTPs (Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures).

The cherry on top - SharkStriker SOC implements the best practices for automation empowering your existing security investments to function at their maximum potential fighting the most hidden and sophisticated threats. For times of serious incidents, our team provides much-needed support through expert analysis and incident response planning.
